

Princeton Conquers Yale 3 to 0 to Win 'Big Three' Championship for Year

OUTPLAYED IN YARDS, TIGERS HOLL SOLIDLY IN EVERY EMERGENCY

Yale's Attacks Smothered by Stern Princeton Line When Goal Line Is Menaced; Smith Drop Kicks 3-Point Margin of Victory; Charley O'Hearne Fails in Feverish Attempt to Tie Score in Late Moments.

PALMER STADIUM, PRINCETON, Nov. 18.—Princeton flouted the conventions and made a mockery of fate for the last time this season, this afternoon in defeating the heavily favored Yale outfit by a score of 3 to 0, before a mighty crowd of football enthusiasts. Out-rushed, but never out-guessed or out-gamed, the Tigers carried the Yale defensive before it in one compelling rush at the start of the second half, forced the play far down into Yale's territory and then faced by a determined defense sent Smith back to the 15-yard line to drop kick the three points which meant victory for Princeton and defeat for Yale.

Glorious Climax for Princeton.
It was a glorious climax to a glorious season for Princeton, a season in which a green team was carried through all manner of trials and tribulations on the strength of its own purpose. The defeat of Yale was only one of many scored by Princeton this year, others having scored over Chicago and Harvard, while not an opponent was able to reverse the verdict against the Tigers. Princeton has been called a team of destiny and in view of what it did today against Yale, no other term could adequately describe it. Outplayed, though it may have been in the matter of yards gained from scrimmage, it turned on its rival when threatened and completely smothered the Yale attack at all critical moments.

Yale's Chance Came Early.
As early as the first five minutes of the game, Yale faced its big moment, running with the ball deep in its own territory. Charley O'Hearne, on his own 35-yard line and when Denver recovered the ball for Yale it looked as though Princeton's capacity for running a loose ball to earth was about to turn against it. In quick succession, Neale, Jordan, and Scott reeled off successive first downs, bringing the ball to the 10-yard line. However, on the fourth down Yale was still one yard from the goal and it is a matter of record that it remained there, for Jordan smashing into the center of the line found three line descendants of Stonewall Jackson awaiting him and the ball changed hands.

O'Hearne Fails to Score.
Late in the game Yale had several opportunities to score but could not take advantage of them and the rushed Charley O'Hearne was released and proceeded to essay four field goals, none of which succeeded. Two of them were attempted from as far back as the 55-yard line. The last of these, a 55-yard drop kick, stands as a bad attack of chills and fever as the ball veered its way toward the distant goal and at the last moment dropped underneath the crossbar.

Another Princeton Hero.
The name of Kenneth Smith, the Tigers' right guard, seems to have been the field goal that Princeton win, will go down in Princeton's platoon history with those of the famous Poes, John Dewitt, Sam White and others, who scored winning points for their alma mater. All season Princeton coaches have been drilling Smith in the art of drop kicking. In some ways, the Harvard developed Charley Brickley. Today their task brought ample reward. The Newark lad, scarcely out of his teens, standing on Yale's 15-yard line, calmly hit the ball into the goal bar, and this feat, not particularly impressive at the time, spelled victory in huge letters, late in the twilight when the rival teams left the field without further scoring.

The story of the play which gave Princeton another victory in the series which reached the forty-sixth game today, can be told in a few words.

The Winning Play.
Following an exchange of punts, Princeton received the ball near mid-field. On the first line-up, the Tiger crossed the Building with a forward pass thrown by Cleaves and caught by Trent for an 11-yard gain. On the next line-up, Cleaves passed and advanced bareheaded through Yale's left wing between tackle and guard for a seven-yard gain. Beattie, substituting for left half back Crum dashed around Yale's right end, the Eli's 15-yard line. Caldwell gained four yards on a triple pass and here Princeton's offense was checked. Yale's powerful line refused to yield another inch and after two attempts to pass, Smith's signal for a drop kick was called. Standing within easy distance of his objective, and the Princeton line holding steady, Yale charged in a state of rage, he calmly dropped the ball to the ground and booted it on the rebound neatly and completely over the bar for a field goal, which ultimately won the game.

The feat in itself was nothing extraordinary from a football standpoint. It rounded out and completed, however, one of the remarkable seasons in the history of the Tigers' gridiron eleven. It added a triumph to Yale, Princeton's oldest and dearest rival, as the climax to a fall of football play in which both the University of Chicago and Harvard bowed in defeat before Nassau's great combination.

Teams Lack Punch.
Considered as a whole, the teams appeared more or less evenly matched, and each seemed to lack the finishing punch to put over scores when opportunities and excellent plays had brought the ball well within the scoring zone. The line-up and summary:

Ardmore Annexes 8th Straight Win, Still Undefeated

Special to The World.
ARDMORE, Nov. 18.—Ardmore high school hung up its eighth consecutive win here Saturday afternoon, defeating Lawton by the score of 34 to 0. Although, out-weighted by the visitors, the Ardmore gridsters had the upper hand through the four quarters and by a barrage of forwards and end runs for big gains, kept the play in Lawton territory. Only during the last quarter did Lawton show any dangerous offensive. But Ardmore held at the critical moments during the first half.
Ardmore tallied two touchdowns, both of which were resultant of 20-yard forwards with Mort Brown, flashy end, receiving both throws, and carrying them over the line. Another score was marked up when the locals blocked a punt on the 10-yard line, while the remaining markers were checked up by rushing through the enemy line. Ardmore is thus far undefeated this season, and has two games to play to finish the season. The next opponent will be Chickasha, at Ardmore, and on Thanksgiving day, the roster is concluded versus Shawnee at Shawnee.

Dartmouth Conquers Columbia, 27 to 0

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Dartmouth defeated Columbia at the Polo grounds today, 27 to 0, in a game marked by sensational turns and costly fumbles. Columbia's scoring came in the third period, intercepted a forward pass on his own 30-yard line and raced 70 yards for a touchdown. Roderick scored the additional point by kicking the goal.

MANY ATHLETES TO BE IN PARIS FOR '24 OLYMPIAD

Greatest Number of Entries for All Time, Manager Says

By FREDERIC R. ARBOTT.
PARIS, Nov. 18.—The Olympic games of 1924 will bring together the largest contingent of international athletes the world has ever seen. Mr. Allan Muir of Philadelphia, secretary of the Olympic committee, told International News Service: "I have just returned from America," continues Mr. Muir, "where I have been assured that the United States will send 200 men, 100 women, and 100 children. South American countries, such as Argentina, Chile and Brazil, that have never before been represented in Olympic games will send large teams to Paris. A Chinese representation of over one hundred will be on hand as well as a team of Japanese soccer players. The Japs will be seen for the first time on the soccer field, and Nippon is putting forth great effort to make its team winners. There will be no less than 40 soccer teams contending for honors."

The running track at the new stadium in Colombes, two miles out of Paris, is receiving special attention, and the promoters promise to make it the fastest track in Europe. It is larger than any track in the United States—555 yards around. This makes it possible to run the quarter in one turn. There are six lanes for the sprints, each four feet wide.

The field is 170 yards by 77. Included here are four high and broad jumps, shot puts and pole vaults as well as two hammer, javelin and discus throws.
Sixty thousand spectators will be accommodated. For the first time on an athletic field, special sections will be entirely covered. Therefore rain, so common in Paris, will not interfere with carrying out the events. The swimming pool, adding the field is 160 feet long and 60 feet wide. There will be places for 1,000 people to watch the aquatic events. Plant tennis courts will be constructed, 12 for the men and three in the center for the finals.

If sufficient guarantee can be had from the competitors, small hotels will be built for the athletes. The athletes to be near the scene of their activities, where they may try out at will. The rent will be minimum, to save expenses for the respective teams.
The Chemin de Fer de l'Etat, whose tracks serve the town of Colombes, where the stadium is being erected, has promised that the trains will be electrified in time for the games. Trains will be run into special terminals, with direct communication with the stadium.

The International Federation of Sports has entire charge of the actual management of the events. The judges and referees of each event will be appointed by the federation of the sport it represents. This will eliminate all difficulties in the proper appointment of officials.
There has been assurance that the Paris Municipal Council will increase its appropriation for the games. One million francs have already been voted, but five millions will be forth coming in form of a loan.

Bates' Light Eleven Is Easy for the Army
WEST POINT, Nov. 18.—Bates, with a light team, was completely outclassed by the Army steam roller today and failed to score while the cadets were piling up 19 points. Although Washington, at times, put up a stubborn defense, Missouri supporters got their greatest thrill in the final period when Boyd and Wright, within five minutes, scored two touchdowns. Fowler kicked goal after the first touchdown but failed on the last. Line plunges played a large part in the Tiger scores.

Missouri Shuts Out St. Louis, 27 to 0
COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 18.—Missouri university overwhelmed Washington university of St. Louis in a Missouri Valley conference football game here today, 27 to 0. After the first quarter, in which the Tigers scored, Missouri was never in danger, although Washington, at times, put up a stubborn defense.

Commercial Cage Teams Preparing For Start Dec. 6

Members of the Commercial Basketball league, which opens the season at the Y. M. C. A. courts December 6, already are working out in preparation for the start. Pure Oil, Gypsy Oil, Meze and Snyder and Johnson are the six contenders.
The teams are already working out on the Y floor and positions are practically assured. Pure Oil started practice this week and is very probable their line-up will station Whiting and Meister at forwards, Ben Springer at center, and West and Bremner at guards. The team play of Pure Oil will be somewhat hampered by the loss of the Sexton twins, but at the end of two or three games, Bremner and West will have fitted well into the fast-going champion combination. Coulter will serve as spare man and will be able to fit into any position that may open.
Pappan, manager of the Gypsy Oil team, plans to have a strong contender this season and in the coming game Pure Oil will show a team that will prove his contention. The Gypsy Oil team is composed of a fast group of players which includes Whitefield and Johnson at guards, Pappan at center, and Taylor and Meze at forwards. Shuman is relief man for Gypsy Oil at guard and McClure at forward.
Lloyd Malone, manager of the Meze quintet, although making no rash statements, says that he will field a strong team on the floor which will not come up at the end of the race. Ranger and Vernon stellar forwards, will form his scoring machine. Tom Ashby former Stanford star, at center, and Malone and Stepp at guards. Melville and Martin will serve as alternates and with the above combination, Meze is assured of a strong team.
Snyder of the Snyder-Johnson company, is not giving out any indication as to who will compose his team and no doubt he will have a dark horse team that will look good on the floor.
The season tickets for the Commercial league games are on sale now and can be obtained from representatives of the various teams or from D. T. Treatall at the Y. M. C. A.

Woodmen to See Grapplers Work Tuesday Evening

A wrestling smoker has been arranged for Woodmen of the World fraternal lodge at the city hall at the W. O. W. hall in West Tulsa. The public in general also will be welcome to attend, all the proceeds to go to the hall and camp fund of the W. O. W. The admission charge will be 75 cents.
Farmer Tucker will meet Paul Ruckelshaus, one of the best wrestlers in the state, for a match which will be a finish match. They are middleweights and each claims many victories. The match will be a best-of-three falls out of three, with a time limit of two hours.
The matches were arranged for the Woodmen by the Tulsa Athletic club and the wrestlers are working there in preparation.

When Coach Howard M. Acher sounds his call for basketball candidates to try for places on the years University of Tulsa quintet, two letter men, three substitutes and perhaps 15 or 20 new men will attempt to make their place on the varsity.
Captain-Elect Shumata, the "Big Log" Lawrence, and all-star guard will be back in uniform with Harold Hill, com. football captain who is also a guard, and the only other letter man in college. White who has been playing a star game at center for the Golden Hurricane eleven, and Perry and Martin also members of the football squad are the other members of last year's basketball squad. Perry is a faster chap and should handle himself well at center, while Martin a heavy man will fill in well as a guard.

All of Acher's other candidates are either freshmen just out of high school or men who have been in school but who have not turned out for places on the basketball team until this year.

Youngsters Coming Up.
Three members of the 1921-22 championship academy five which left the school just out of the season will be out for the season this year, the four players having graduated into the university last year. They are Dill, a young husky who plays a flashy game at guard, center and Boone and Smith, who did most of the scoring for the forward positions for the high school. Boone should give some of the older men a little battle for forward places. Several letter men for last year's Tulsa high team as this season's star high school material will be on hand at the first practice which is scheduled for Tuesday night.

Coach Acher can not start his regular practice Thursday night, the season as very nearly all the football men have signed their intention of trying for the indoor team. This season's Acher should have some very fine exponents of the "cage" game with such clever ball carriers as "Spike" Price, Pat Baskin, George Vickers, Harold Hill, com. football captain, and Co. Robinson and Chief Nelson.

Even with such bright prospects the coming season the local men will have a hard task, for the hardest basketball schedule that a local five has ever attempted. The season will be a long one, with games being arranged with all of the state conference fives, as well as several members of the national conference and Texas inter-collegiate conference squads. Coach Acher is trying to arrange games with some Missouri Valley schools and other colleges in the north and west.

The annual Texas and southwestern trip will be taken in February and the local authorities are arranging a basketball conference game with the team east during the holidays provided that the football team does not play a postseason game during this period.
